

as a citizen legislator in nh, i am appalled--by the replacement of democracy by plutocracy. please do your best to return the media to what was intended by thos. jefferson--independent and operated and deliberated with diverse viewpoints by many interests and groups--not the oligopoly we have today--and which you might decide can be further concentrated. charles f. weed